HYA to Conduct Search

The Board of Education of Mercer County Special Services School District has announced the selection of HYA to assist with the district's search for a Superintendent. The position is currently being filled by an Interim. The search will include an assessment of the district's needs and collection of input from stakeholders regarding the desired characteristics of the next superintendent. This information will lead to the development of a Leadership Profile. In addition to recruiting and identifying candidates, HYA will assist the Board with interviews and will facilitate board discussions regarding candidates.

HYA is a national education consulting firm with over 40 years of experience in assisting school systems in finding and placing highly qualified leaders. HYA has completed more than 2,000 searches for administrative leaders throughout the country. The firm is committed to a mission of providing high-quality consulting services for school boards.

More than 130+ consultants are involved with the firm and assist with recruiting candidates. They include active and former superintendents, board members, university and college professors and other leaders in public and private education. Consultants are carefully matched with the school systems they serve and each search is conducted with the specific parameters of the district in mind. HYA has a noteworthy track record of successful searches reflecting its commitment to continued client satisfaction.

In addition to executive searches, HYA supports school leadership in board governance, executive coaching, strategic planning, transition planning, leadership development, evaluations, and return on investment audits. HYA is based in Arlington Heights, Illinois. Additional information about the organization is available at www.hyasearch.com.
